DIVISION MEMORANDUM

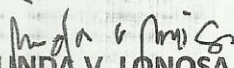

Number OGS.2015

HOLDING OF SIMULTANEOUS SCHOOL-BASED BSP
CAMPORAL IN ALL ELEMENTARY LEVEL AND SECONDARY SCHOOLS IN THE PROVINCE

TO ALL: District Commissioners
Principal (Elementary/Secondary, Private Schools)
Head Teachers
Scouts Coordinators
All Concerned

1. The Boy Scouts of the Philippines, Catanduanes Council pursuant to Pres. Proclamation No. 1326 declaring the months of September, October and November as Scouting Months, hereby announces the holding of a 3 day School Camporal in every Elementary and Secondary in the Division of Catanduanes within the month of September to November 2015.
2. The holding of said activity should start in the afternoon of Friday and ends in the afternoon Sunday, with the theme "Peace and Prosperity through Scouting".
3. Commissioners of all ranks and Scout Leaders should exert vigorous efforts in campaigning for maximum participation in this activity in order for every Boy Scouts in the province to benefit from the Scouting Program they rightfully deserve.
4. Objectives. To provide outdoor challenges and expeditions necessary to broaden and deepen one's knowledge and skills which are necessary ingredients in person's physically and mental advancement.
To participate in meaningful activities that will develop in them a progressive manner, desirable leadership skills and deepen the Scout concern for the upliftment of citizenship training and character.
5. Scouts uniform speaks well of unity and discipline. Scout leaders therefore should wear their uniforms properly in order to encourage and project an image of a scout in uniform.
6. In the responsibility of every Scout Leader to enlighten the community on the Philosophy, mission, and objectives of the movement, it is likewise incumbent upon the commissioners and scout leaders to draw the active involvement and participation of their respective Barangay Officials and other Community Leaders especially in the planning as well in the implementation of the Scouting Program in the school.

7. It is imperative that an organizational, committee, composed of Commissioners and Scouters as well as the Community Officials, be informed to plan interesting and challenging advancement oriented Scouting Activities.
8. As well organized program of activities will ensure the success of every school camporal. Activities planned for the month-long scouting observation should be designed to underscore the enduring ideals of the Movement. These activities must also project an image that should draw the continuing support of the community.
9. Alternate activities may be considered to suit the particular needs in your respective locality.
10. To ensure success of the School Based Camporal all concerned are advised to kindly exert vigorous efforts in the recruitment of scout membership for this school year.
11. After action reports preferably with pictures should be submitted to this office fifteen (15) days after the activity.
12. For dissemination, compliance and implementation.
