Dear Dr. Collano,

Greetings from the Department of Information and Communications Technology (DICT) Luzon Cluster 3!

The DICT LC3, through the ICT Industry Development Bureau (IIDB), in partnership with the Filipino Online Professionals Service Cooperative (FOPSCo) will be conducting the State of Online Freelancing in Luzon Cluster 3 on November 19, 2021, from 9:00 AM to 12:00 PM via Zoom as part of the Philippine Online Freelancing Conference.

With the theme “Strengthening the Online Professionals Community in the New Normal”, the conference will gather different key players and stakeholders from the online freelancing industry with the aim:

- To provide updates on the state of global online freelancing industry and in the country, as well as to communicate the initiatives of the government to support the online freelancing, particularly the programs of the DICT,
- To serve as a platform fostering discussions on the opportunities, challenges, and key imperatives to further promote the online freelancing industry in the country,
- To promote the Philippine Online Freelancing Industry ecosystem through networking and collaboration among the government, the private sector, and the online freelancing community, and
- To share best practices and experiences by the LGUs and successful freelancers.

In line with this, we are pleased to invite your respective agency, Department of Education, to send representatives to attend in the above-mentioned conference.

Interested participants may register at <https://bit.ly/POFCONLC3Registration>. For further queries, please contact the Secretariat through pofcon\_inquiries@dict.gov.ph.

We look forward to your favorable response to this invitation.

Thank you.

Sincerely yours,
